

Links of Interest

Written by Administrator - Last Updated Thursday, 07 March 2013 08:36

This is a compilation of web resources related to disability and inclusion. If you have a resource you would like to share please send your ideas to Brandi at : bmelby@rrhsf.org www.iamnorm.org A site dedicated to the changing of attitudes towards people with disabilities.

www.iod.unh.edu/pbisfilm.aspx Institute on disability/University Center for Excellence on Disability. This shows a preview of a movie in the making regarding the inclusion of students with emotional/behavioral challenges through positive behavioral interventions and supports.

<http://www.wimp.com/autisticgirl> this videoclip reinforces the attitude of treating others like we would like to be treated. It is best not to assume that people (anyone) do not understand what is being said to and about them.

www.sproutflix.org This site presents carefully selected films of artistry and intellect from around the world specifically related to the lives, performances, and accomplishments of people with developmental disabilities.

Links of Interest

Written by Administrator - Last Updated Thursday, 07 March 2013 08:36

Woman Berates Store Clerk with Down syndrome Think about how you would react if you saw this treatment of people with disabilities.

Adult Student Transition Education Program A two year, inclusive postsecondary program for students with intellectual disabilities. (video clip)

Tim's Restaurant Tim is an inspiration. Has a disability but owns his own restaurant.